DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

1. This application contains claims directed to more than one species of the generic invention. These species are deemed to lack unity of invention because they are not so linked as to form a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1.

The species are as follows:

I. System

Species A: A system comprising a polymeric article including a periodic structure of a periodically occurring separate domains, the second domain comprised of a polymeric species not containing a sufficient quantity of inorganic species capable of forming a ceramic oxide.

Species B: A system comprising an article including a periodic structure of a periodically occurring separate domains, the second domain comprised of a void space.

Species C: A system comprising a polymeric article including a periodic structure of a periodically occurring separate domains, the second domain comprised of a polymeric species not containing a sufficient quantity of inorganic species capable of forming a ceramic oxide. At least one domain further contains an auxiliary component.

Species D: A system comprising an article including a periodic structure of a periodically occurring separate domains, the second domain comprised of a material that cannot be formed into a periodic structure.

Species E: An article comprising a periodic structure of a periodically occurring separate domains having at least one polymeric species, and at least one domain comprising a molded structure formed of at least one of a liquid or solid material.

II. Block copolymer

Species F: two block copolymer.

Species G: three block copolymer.

IV. Filling Material

Species H: material is a fluorine-containing polymer.

Species I: material is a conducting polymer.

Species J: material is a metal.

Species K: material has a melting temperature of at least 400 degrees C.

Species L: material has a dielectric constant greater than 3.

Species M: material has a dielectric constant less than 3.

Species N: material is a magnetic material.

Species O: material comprises a magnetic material and an electrical conductor.

Applicant is required, in reply to this action, to elect a single species to which the claims shall be restricted if no generic claim is finally held to be allowable. The reply must also identify the claims readable on the elected species, including any claims subsequently added. An argument that a claim is allowable or that all claims are generic is considered non-responsive unless accompanied by an election.

Upon the allowance of a generic claim, applicant will be entitled to consideration of claims to additional species which are written in dependent form or otherwise include all the limitations of an allowed generic claim as provided by 37 CFR 1.141. If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which are readable upon the elected species. MPEP § 809.02(a).

Art Unit: 1771

The claims are deemed to correspond to the species listed above in the following manner:

Species A: claims 2, 4-11, 16, 25 and 29.

Species B: claims 3, 12-15, 46-47, 49-61 and 109.

Species C: claims 19-22.

Species D: claims 26-28.

Species E: claims 30-40 and 42-45.

Species F: claim 17.

Species G: claim 18.

Species H: claims 33 and 34.

Species I: claim 35, 107 and 108.

Species J: claim 36.

Species K: claim 37.

Species L: claim 38 and 64-106.

Species M: claim 63.

Species N: claim 39, 40, 41, 62, 110-138 and 140-148.

Species O: claim 139.

The following claim(s) are generic: claim 1, 23, 24, 32 and 48.

The species listed above do not relate to a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1 because, under PCT Rule 13.2, the species lack the same or corresponding special technical features for the following reasons: Species are patentably distinct and lacks distinct technical features over each other. For examples, Species A lacks the void space in second domain of Species B.

2. A telephone call was made to Michael Pomianek on 3/1/2004 to request an oral election to the above restriction requirement, but did not result in an election being made.

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include an election of the invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143).

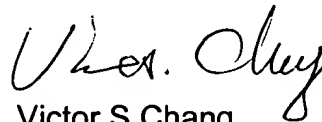

3. Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).

4. Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to Victor S Chang whose telephone number is 571-272-1474. The examiner can normally be reached on 8:30 - 5:00.

If attempts to reach the examiner by telephone are unsuccessful, the examiner's supervisor, Terrel H Morris can be reached on 571-272-1478. The fax phone number for the organization where this application or proceeding is assigned is 703-872-9306.
